Where the vehicle has been recently acquired all relevant documentation including invoices, bank cheques and statements, etc. will have to be produced to the Customs. A returning resident absent for less than 2 years will not ordinarily be allowed duty free importation but there is provision for consideration by Customs which will depend on the circumstances. Bank approval is required and duty is assessed on motor vehicles.	Motor vehicles or household goods may not be disposed of in any way within 12 months of customs clearance without the prior approval of the Controller of Customs. No individual immigrant may import, as personal and household effects, more than one motor vehicle of any sort, and no family of immigrants may import more than two motor vehicles of any sort, one cannot afford to wait until one has been in Zimbabwe for some time before deciding what one would like to buy and import. It is very important to note that one will have to pay the customs duty and import tax in respect of any such goods one may acquire from outside Zimbabwe subsequent to one's time of arrival. This duty can be high and if one plans to order goods, one should first check with the Department of Customs and Excise to find out how much will have to be paid.
