

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Please note that goods with a single value about EUR 5000 have to be declared.
Removal goods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customs registration form 0350 • Notice of foreign authority about change of residency showing how long the person lived outside EU (ABMELDEBESTAETIGUNG) or a letter from a third party (employer, German Embassy) confirming that the shipper has lived or planned to live more than 12 months in a foreign country • Registration of the shipper at his new residence in Germany (ANMELDBESTAETIGUNG) • Copy of the shippers passport • Renting contract of a domicile (if possible) • Contract of employment (if possible) • Goods inventory list • A letter signed by shipper that following goods are not inside the shipment: firearms – alcohol – tobacco – cigarettes – tea – coffee, is useful. 	Duty free entry if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The shipper has lived more than 12 months or planned to live more than 12 month in a country outside the EU • The removal goods are imported within one year of the owner establishing his permanent residence in Germany. • The household goods and /or vehicles have been owned and used for a minimum of 6 months prior to shipping date (vessel departure) to Germany. • The removal goods shall be re-used in Germany for the identical purposes. • The goods must stay in possession of the importers for 12 months after importation. 	Removal goods are <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • household good items that the owner already used at his previous domicile. • portable instruments and tools used for skilled manual work or self-employed business. • Vehicles for private use (for details see page 2 “Vehicles for private use”).
Diplomatic removals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Form 0349. • Certificate from the Embassy or the Consulate. 	Duty free entry for foreign diplomats if bilateral agreement with origin country.
Wedding trousseaux	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marriage certificate. • Proof that the person has lived or planned to live more than 12 months outside the EU. • Certificate of registration with the German Police authorities. • Renting contract (proof of a domicile). • Inventory list. 	Duty free entry if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the items are belonging to persons transferring his/her permanent residence from a non-EU country to Germany because of the marriage with an EU Citizen. • residence had been at least the previous 12 consecutive months outside EU. • the goods are imported between 2 months before the wedding and 4 months after it. 	Duty free entry for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • household good items that the owner already used at his previous domicile • Wedding trousseaux • gifts (not exceeding EUR 1,000 in value per gift) Excluded from duty free entry are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • tobacco and alcohol

Updated version October 2015.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Germany for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the goods are not leave the possession of the importers for twelve months after importation. If the household goods are imported before the marriage, proof is needed that the marriage will take place within 2 months (the time-limit may be extended upon request).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> motorised vehicles gift exceeding the value of 1.000 Euro are excluded from these provisions.
Inheritance	Justification of the entitlement as heir or legatee.	Duty free entry. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The inheritor or legatee must have his permanent residence or in the EU. entry of the inherited goods within 2 years after their coming into his/her possession. 	By inherited property it is meant: Used objects for which legatee can furnish proof, that he received the goods from the testator (only in case of death) and that these goods constitute his share of the inheritance or legacy. Excluded from duty free entry are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tobacco and Alcohol Commercial vehicles Commercially used objects and equipment (except for portable tools and instruments) Stocks of raw materials, or finished or half-finished products.
Vehicles for private use	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Copy of ownership document Copy of the last registration in a foreign country for a minimum of 6 months prior to shipping the vehicle to Germany. 	Duty free entry provided the person who is importing it has used the car for at least 6 months before.	After the customs clearance, a technical inspection performed by the vehicle registration office is required. Then a title will be issued.
Commercial vehicles, commercial goods and non-portable equipment for craftsmen or self-employed persons		Subject to payment of duties.
Spirits, wine, tobacco		Subject to payment of duties.
Food		Duty free entry, provided in quantities, which can be considered as normal provisions.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Meat, including sausage			The importation of all meat or meat by-products, poultry, fish, milk or milk by-products is prohibited.
Arms, ammunition, dangerous objects.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • German Gun licence. • Hunting permit. • Valid German permit to import the weapon(s). 	Importation of objects from the arms register needs an authorisation. Importation forbidden for objects, which are mentioned in Annex 2 of the law on arms.
Pets/domestic animals	Every pet (dogs, cats, ferrets) that comes from a third country and is imported into the EC must be <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • clearly identifiable by microchip or a readable tattoo (microchip obligatory for pets marked after 3 July 2011) • properly vaccinated against rabies, • accompanied by an veterinary inspector's certificate in which the microchip or tattoo number is indicated. In addition, vaccination certificates and in some cases blood-test details must be carried. 	Coming from a third country where rabies occurs or where the epidemic status is unknown, e.g. Turkey, Egypt, Morocco, Tunisia, Thailand or India, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a blood test (rabies antibody test) must be carried out before leaving by an EU-approved laboratory in the respective country, • a three-month waiting period must be observed from the date of the blood test until entry EU. 	Because of all the waiting periods that have to be respected (for the vaccination and blood test), dogs, cats and ferrets from these countries must be at least seven months old in order to meet the entry conditions as prescribed by the laws on animal epidemics. It must also be borne in mind that no more than five animals may be brought in. When importing dogs, the law on the restriction of the introduction or importing of fighting dogs is to be respected. This law bans importation of pit-bull terriers, American Staffordshire terriers, bull terriers and hybrids resulting from interbreeding or crossbreeding these breeds with other dogs. The ban also applies to other breeds that are considered dangerous according to regional regulations that apply in the German BUNDESLAND where the dog shall be permanently kept. Further information is available from the local ORDNUNGSAMT (town clerk's office).
Forbidden Items		The importation of the below listed articles is only granted under special conditions or forbidden: Mushrooms from Eastern Europe, potatoes,

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
		food of animal origin, supplementary means of food, organic seeds, plants, wood, explosives, radioactive stuff, writings which are forbidden by the constitution or pornographic writings, absinthe, methyl alcohol, pure alcohol, narcotics, wine, grape juice and other various foodstuffs and consumer goods in large quantity, which are usually held as provisions, various fodders as well as goods concerned by the Washington protection agreement.
Solid wood packing material		EU applies the ISPM 15 standard related to the treatment of solid wood packaging and dunnage (wood used to wedge or support non-wood cargo). All arriving solid wood packaging must carry the ISPM15 mark indicating that all the timber has received appropriate treatment. The approved measures are heat treatment and fumigation.	Failure to include the ISPM15 mark will result in either the timber being ordered for examination or mandatory treatment. Excepted from ISPM15 mark: raw wood of 6mm thickness or less, processed wood producer by glue, heat and pressure.